THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE B.PRAKASH RAO

AND

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN,J

WRIT PETITION NO.11520 OF 2006

ORAL ORDER:(per Sri BPR.J)

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Services – I and at their request the writ petition itself is taken up for final disposal.

The petitioner herein is an unsuccessful applicant before the A.P. Administrative Tribunal. He filed this writ petition seeking a writ of Certiorari challenging the orders in OA.No.7536 of 2003 dated 3.5.2006 dismissing the application filed under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act whereunder he sought to assail the impugned orders dated 10.11.2003.

After hearing both the sides and also on perusing the record, the Tribunal was of the opinion that in fact no final orders were passed by the authorities and therefore there is no cause of action for the applicant to approach the Tribunal and accordingly dismissed the application.

The only grievance of the petitioner is that virtually he would be at a loss if his objections or his pleas in regard to the benefits to which he would be entitled to are not considered before any final orders are being passed by the authorities and therefore he wants to file proper application/representation bringing to the notice of the authorities the benefits to which he is entitled to, which can as well be considered before any such final order is being passed.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Services –I, we are in complete agreement with the finding of the Tribunal and we do not find any legal infirmity in the impugned orders. The writ petition fails and the same shall accordingly stand dismissed giving liberty to the petitioner herein to file proper application before the authorities making out his objections/pleas which would be taken into consideration before any final orders are being passed.
